

Century, Shine

Fallen lies, between these eyes
I see your crown of dirt
So beautiful you are
So beautiful you are to me

Don't try to be someone, you are not
And you will shine
Don't try to free someone, who is lost
And you will shine for me

Even though it's so hard
For me to bear this love
So magical you are
So magical you are to me

Don't try to be someone, you are not
And you will shine
Don't try to free someone, who is lost
And you will shine for me

Don't try to be someone, you are not
And you will shine

Don't try to be someone, you are not
And you will shine
Don't try to free someone, who is lost
And you will shine for me
