

Cephalic Carnage, Exhumed Remains

Fell in love with a girl at the coffee shop Rachel was so beautiful
"now she's dead" The paper read severed flesh, laceration, degradation pleading for me to let her go sho told me no can't handle rejection all my crimes are perfection charmed your pants off now you're horrified from my many personalities this one, a sadistic rapist the one before, college student nerd, ridden with acne Pretending to be your tutor, necrosadonimity
I taught you how to die Penetrated, before and after death
I still jack off on the maggots of your exhumed remains,
The alarm goes off
I awake
From a beautiful dream
The exhumed remains
Of that weed
I excavated Got me baked
I must've passed out Rachel is pissed
I had to give her a lesson last night
Instead got higher than light My shorts are stuck to my dick
