

Chad Brock, Unbreak My Heart

(Chad Brock/Buddy Brock/Jeff Silvey)

I can't believe that we thought we were through
We said some things and acted like a couple of fools
Let's rekindle the fire while there's still a spark
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart

I saw you last night with somebody new
I know that you saw me with somebody too
You know neither one of us is happy where we are
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart

We'll undo all of the damage we have done
Back up and get back to square number one
We need to be together, 'cause we're no good apart
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart

I'll take back, "I'm leaving" and "I don't love you"
And you'll take back, "It's over" and "Honey, we're through"
We'll both say we're sorry and make a brand new start
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart

We'll undo all of the damage we have done
Back up and get back to square number one
We need to be together, 'cause we're no good apart
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart
Let me uncry your tears and you unbreak my heart
