

Chad Mitchell Trio, I Feel So Good About It

I just got off of that sin-bound train
You know I'm never gettin' on again

I feel so good about it
Must tell the world about it
Want to jump and shout it
Talk to my friends about it
I'm just so happy, Lord, I don't know what I'll do

People stop and ask me how I know
I look at them and say "He told me so";

He's my right, he's my guiding light
He's always with me and he treats me right

"Feel so happy, feel so happy"
He built a house that will not fall
Opened the door to us one and all

I just got off of that sin-bound train
You know I'm never gettin' on again
