

Chad Siwik, Up The Wall

I want to help but can't you see that I'm busy?
Can't you try reaching me at some later date
This morse code love is driving me crazy
Won't you consider my emotional state?

You don't have to say things that drive me crazy,
you can use common sense to differentiate between things that should and should not be said
just use your head am I talking to a brick wall?!?!
You know what to do how to drive me insane
You know what to push what knobs to turn
How to really get me going make me lose it so quickly it annoys the fuck out of me
why don't you do what I want?!?!

"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my brain I'm sayin'
"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my head instead

I want to cry now can't you see my intentions?
Can't you try? Be forgiving I'm not that way
I'm in dire need of all your attention
It's me crying out that I need lovin' bay-bay
It's you You're here and you're all I've ever wanted
I just can't help it, though:
I have to say what's on my mind...

I'm sorry's not enough to excuse my behavior
I know you have to work, work, work but I'd like to remind you: you ignore me, don't look at me, and watching TV is not what I can call spending time together

"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my brain I'm sayin'
"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my head instead

Falling down....

I need your attention! I need your attention!

Secure the shit now, hold it down, make it quiet
According to you I never need to diet
I don't wanna feel like I'm waiting in line
These transitional phases kick my ass every time
You know I can't stand being apart from you
Why don't you feel the same way that I do?

"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my brain I'm sayin'
"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my head instead
"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my brain I'm sayin'
"Up the Wall maybe down the hall"
In my head instead

And I can't watch
And I can't watch
And I can't watch!
