

Chad VanGaalén, Rabid Bits Of Time

You've been dead for years,
but you never knew.
And the rabid bits of time
have been eating you.
But no one knows where we go...
no one knows where we go,
when we're dead or when we're dreaming.
oooh-woo ooo... (x4)

And you've been dead for Years,
but you never knew...
and the rabid bits of Time
have been eating you...
No one knows where we go...
no one knows where we go,
when we're dead or when we're dreaming
