

Chalk Farm, Lose You Now

If I don't ask you for advice
Please don't give it to me
You tell me nothing's free
Do the dogs biting at your heels
Have a deeper meaning
Listen, I'm sorry
I surrender to things
As they happen to me
Am I one of the fateful?
Have we gotten to be
That we can't agree on anything
I don't want to lose you now
Have we gone too far to
Ever get back to love?
And I don't want to second guess
How I'd feel if I was living without you
Well, I thought everything was good
You ask me if I love you
What made you think I don't
When I'm trying to show I care
Please don't ask about her
I said, it's over
I surrender to these
Aspirations I feel
Am I one of the faithful?
Is it better for me
To be by myself in misery?
I don't want to lose you now
Have we gone too far to
Ever get back to love?
And I don't want to second guess
How I'd feel if I was living without you
And you want to hear
What I believe to be a lie
How can every word I say
Prove all your friends were right?
You're all I asked for
And you are, and you are
When you're looking at me
I surrender to everything
I don't want to lose you now
Have we gone too far to
Ever get back to love?
And I'm not gonna second guess
And what if I was
No, I don't want to lose you now
No, I don't want to lose you now
No, I don't want to lose
