Chameleons

What Does Anything Mean Basically

P S Goodbye

I've had too many crazy nights

I've seen too many crazy sights

I didn't want the scars to show

In those moments only mothers know

You know in retrospect it seems

There's always danger in your dreams

Like an actor stealing scenes

All the magic moments in your teens

All the thoughts you fight to hide

Lady passion lady pride

Sisters side by side

Talking while our tongues are tied

La da da

Da da da da
