

Chameleons, Paper Tigers

Chameleons

Script Of The Bridge

Paper Tigers

Too much of it makes me crazy

Not enough of it makes me lazy

Too much makes me lazy

Not enough of it makes me crazy

Time stops just for a moment

And then again it's only an instant

Time stops just for an instant

And then again it's only a moment

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

Clean

Know what I mean

Know what I mean

I wish that this feeling

Would go away

They're gonna get you sooner or later

These tigers made of paper

But don't pay now

You have to pay later

Confronting tigers made of paper

They always keep themselves clean

Yeah, They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

They always keep themselves clean

Clean

I can't shake this feeling

Ahh, I can't shake this feeling

No, I can't shake this feeling

Feeling

How do you feel?
