

Champion, Every Word

With nothing left to say, you turned your back
And walked away
Your words never meant a thing
And it hurts to know that even after all this time
I find myself still reaching out to you

All our best days lay ahead while yours are far behind
We won't lose, I know that we'll never lose sight

Still choking on those words, and I want to say it to your face
But it's time that I learn to let it go the words you said never meant a thing
And after all this time it was you who proved us right

All our best days lay ahead while yours are far behind
We won't lose sight
Broken trust is hard to build back up again
But we won't lose, I know that we'll never lose sight

We're moving on

They come and go as days go by
And we're left standing all alone
But it's not the numbers, it's what's inside and we're the ones with the lasting values

We're going to make these moments count
And every word we said, is meant to last until the end
What we said and what is meant, every word is meant to last Until the end
