

Champion Jack Dupree, Million People Live The Same Way

Ah, that's what Shakespeare said: There would be days like this.
Say you'll be in Paris, playing the blues. And I never believed it.
Now I believe everything Shakespeare says.

It is a mean old world, tryin' to get along all by yourself
It is a mean old world whooo, tryin' to get along all by yourself
When you have a lot of bad luck, don't think you have it all by yourself

You know there's millions of people, haven't got no place to stay
Yes there's millions of people whooo, haven't got no place to stay
You know I ain't all by myself, millions of people livin' the same old way

(guitar solo with comments by Jack:
Do what Shakespeare said!
All right there! Play it, play it!
That's what he said!)

I'm so glad to be in Paris, I'm glad the people have me around
Yes I'm glad to be in Paris whooo, I'm glad the people have me around
Although they have hundreds of people, sleepin' out on the ground
