

Changing Faces, I Apologize

[clock strikes]

[Charisse:]

As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side
As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side

[Chorus:]

As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side
As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side

[Cassandra:]

Remember the sin
When I was young and so much fun
Playin' the games that we would play
I hurt you in a bad way
Never did I imagine that
I would yearn for your lovin' back
Back in my heart again
Back in my heart again
When I look back now

[Chorus:]

As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side
As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side

[Cassandra:]

In the begining
I was just so in love with you
Momma said wait you're way too young
You got your whole life ahead of you
Never did I imagine that
I would yearn for your lovin' back
Back in my heart again
Back in my heart again

[Chorus:]

As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind
Now I need you by my side
As I look back in time
Baby I apologize
Must have been blind

[Charisse:]
I'm lookin' for someone I can love
Lookin' for some I can trust
And I know that you're the one
I am not to afraid to let you know I'm wrong

You're the one my heart beats for
No need to look no more

[Charisse:]
Want you to know that
I want you, need you, oh

Let me know
Let me know boy
Tell me if you're out there
Cause I need you right here
Let me know
Let me know boy
Tell me if you're out there

Let me know
Let me know boy
Tell me if you're out there
Let me know
Tell me if you're out there
