Chant, I Cry To My Self

This smile on my face, it shows everyday
So no one ever knows how I really feel, am I really happy?
There's things on my mind, can't talk about it sometimes
Who can I tell what I'm going through, when I'm feeling sorry
I cry to myself
When no one else is listening
I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
I'll tell you, I'm fine but deep inside I'm dying
When I'm all alone, no one sees when the lights go down
I cry every night, suffer in silence
No I can't deny, this pain is real but I keep trying
I cry to myself
When no one else is listening
I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
Does anyone care how I feel?
Every day, I'm smiling to hide what is real
This pain, I have inside of me
 Is tearing my whole life apart
I cry to myself
When no one else is listening
I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
I cry to myself
When no one else is listening
I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
So I cry to myself
'Cause no one else is listening
So I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
So I cry to myself
When no one else is listening
So I cry to myself
'Cause nobody else is crying for me
