

Chant??? Moore, I Wanna Love (Like That Again)

A long time ago
I was in love so pure and strong
That nothing anyone said or did
Could make it wrong
So excited
One touch was ecstasy
And since that touch
I've never been the same
I wanna love like that again
Just want a love like that
I wanna love like that again
Only a love
I thought of you today
And I began to smile
I reminisced on times gone by
And oh my, my, how we've changed
I can recall the days
The days of sweet surrender
I cherish the joy and the pain
Two hearts so tender
Although the path that we walked together
Now, we walk alone
But now I've grown enough to know
All is fair in love
I guess, I really was not enough
Somehow your endless love has died
And oh my, my, how we have changed
But I want to love like that again
When my lover was my friend
Although you never broke the skin
You live within, take me back to innocence
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like I did way back then
When too much was not enough
One time would not suffice
So, if we could turn back the hands of time
Wouldn't that be nice?
But we both have grown enough
To know it could never be the same
Too much has changed, endless love has died
And my, how we've changed
But I want to love like that again
When my lover was my friend
Although you never broke the skin
You live within, take me back to innocence
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like I did way back then
I'll be waiting here
Take me back to innocence
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love
I wanna love like that again
I wanna love like I did way back then
Can you help me find the love?

Do you remember? Well, I can never forget
I've never loved like that in my life before
But life is not over yet
I need a man who is not afraid
To give himself completely
His love, his body, his mind
And then I'll surrender all that I have
