

Chantal Chamandy, Forever

i dreamt this day in every way since i was a little girl we'd be friends holding hands 'till the end

you're one of a kind you're the dream that came true from the candles i blew you bring out the best in me that's why i love you 'cause your love is so real i'm floating down the aisle watching you wanting me

wanna be yours forever
every step i make every breath i take is getting closer to you forever

our house will be home and love will keep growing with a family of our own we'll sit by the fire, tell stories and laugh and sometimes cry there'll be ups and downs, nothin's perfect but our love won't be afraid to be strong and brave a lifetime together we'll share every emotion that true love can bear

and every step i make, every breath i take

here we are standing side by side i'm ready to be your bride we both say i do oh baby you look into my eyes you kiss me for a while and we slip away
