

Chantal Chamandy, More

somethin' about you that makes me want to give all I got, and I just can't stop you're like an addiction, the cravings so strong I know you can please me, but tell me how long no... this isn't love, just a game

yes. I want you to come and play can you hear me

just a little bit more can I get some
I'm feelin' it
encore, keep on givin' it every mornin', I'll open my door

I don't like waiting, so tell me for sure can you fill my prescription, find me a cure for a woman who's mind that ain't so pure

no. this isn't love, just a game

I'm feelin' it
can't get enough of it don't stop... I said I ain't done yet
