

Chapman Tracy, Goodbye

Chapman Tracy

Let It Rain

Goodbye

For you

Its all in a day

One day in a life

Its all in the one word

The one word is goodbye

For me

Its all in what you say

Though youve tried to be kind

Its all in the words

From the lips that once touched mine with a sigh

Goodbye

For you

Its all in your face

The laugh and worry lines

Its all in the one word

You hope will make you young again

Goodbye

Its all in the play

Someone speaks the line

Its all in the one word

That stops and steals the time

Goodbye

Goodbye

Goodbye

For me

Its all in a day

Its the part in life

When its all in the words

To fate and circumstance resigned

Goodbye
