

Charisma, My Kingdom

Faults and every fight

I have all the power now
No one sees my eyes twice
My troubled sight is seeking
Riots, faults and every fight

In my cave im hollow inside
Im deepening my kingdom
I havent felt the light in my life
Im deepening my kingdom

I depose everyone who dares
To step in front of my victories
I might be hurt, might be late
But im defending my gate

To feel this, to feel my time
To feel this, power in my kind
