

Charley Pride, Brand New Bed Of Roses

I'm looking for a brand new bed of roses
A love just like mine that stands the test of time
I'm looking for a brand new bed of roses a love with everlasting clinging vine
Roses and true love fade a little now and then
But with the kiss and sunshine they'll blossom once again
I'm looking for a brand new bed of roses a love with everlasting clinging vine
[steel]
Roses and true love...
A love with everlasting clinging vine
