

Charley Pride, Shelter Of Your Eyes

In the shelter of your eyes I have finally learned my song
It took so long to realize I just can't make it all alone
Words're only what they say but this feeling isn't wrong
Now I'm so glad I found the way it's good to be where I belong
And I'm gonna stay right here cause I'm in rhythm with your mind
Tune out the world and rest my head neath the shelter of your eyes
[dobro]
Words're only what they say...
