

Charlie Landsborough, I Dreamed I Was In Heaven

Last night I dreamed I was in heaven
But you weren't there
And I was crying like a baby
Looking for you everywhere
And I saw waterfalls of life
Stars that didn't need a night
Somehow heaven wasn't right
Without you

Without you
My heart could never be free
Without you heaven couldn't be heaven to me

Everyone I meet was smiling all sorrow gone
Full of lonesome inside me I wander on
And all the death had been destroyed
Forever cast into the void
Heaven couldn't be enjoyed
With out you

Without you
My life could never be free
Without you heaven couldn't be heaven to me

And an angel stood before me
And to my Shame
I begged and pleaded her to send me
From whence I came
Then all my sorrow flew away
When I heard the Angel say
If you left how could I stay
Without you
