

Charlie Landsborough, It's Raining Outside

It's Raining outside

Oh it's raining outside and I m walkin
No one can see my tears of dismay
It's a ploy that I used for hiding my blues away
Oh it's raining outside and I'm lonely
Don't know where to go to pick up your trail
I can't say goodbye for each time I try I fail

Mother of all my sorrow
Where are you now why did you leave
How can I face tomorrow
With this old broken heart on my sleeve

Oh it's raining outside and I'm wishin'
It would follow my soul and wash all the pain away from my heart letting me start again
Mother of all my sorrows where are you now why did you leave
How can I face tomorrow
With this old broken heart on my sleeve
Maybe you'll come with sunshine
Maybe you'll come someday sometime

Mother of all my sorrows where are you now why did you leave
How can I face tomorrow
With this old broken heart on my sleeve

Mother of all my sorrows where are you now why did you leave
How can I face tomorrow
With this old broken heart on my sleeve

Oh it's raining outside
Oh it's raining outside
Oh it's raining outside
Oh it's raining outside
Oh it's raining outside
Oh it's raining outside