

Charlie Landsborough, Little Bit Of Heaven

Oh the north wind is blowin
Soon Ill be goin on my way
Theres nothing here for me
Youve made that pretty clear
So Ill depart
With a little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell in my heart

Theres a train around nine
And the end of the line is miles away
Ill drown my self in drinkin
And every time I think of you Ill find
A little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell in my mind

Time and distance
I hope will do the trick
Youre the sweetest habit
Ive tried to kick
And I can tell its gonna be hell

Im travelin light
But thats just the polite way to say
Im down on my luck
Some say that you took me for a ride
Gave me a little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell here inside

Time and distance
I hope will do the trick
Youre the sweetest habit
Ive tried to kick
And I can tell its gonna be hell

Time and distance
I hope will do the trick
Youre the sweetest habit
Ive tried to kick
And I can tell its gonna be hell

Oh the north wind is blowin
Soon Ill be goin on my way
Theres nothing here for me
Youve made that pretty clear
So Ill depart
With a little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell in my heart

With a little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell in my heart

With a little bit of heaven and a
Whole lot of hell in my heart
