

Charlie Landsborough, Once In A While

Once in a while
Will you try to give?
One little thought to me
Though someone else maybe
Nearer your heart

Once in a while
Will you dream of
The moments I shared with you
Moments before we too
Drifted apart

Though love smoldering ember
One spark may remain
If love still can remember
That spark may burn again

I know that I'll be contented
With yesterdays memories
Knowing you'll think of me
Once in a while

In love smoldering ember
One spark may remain
If love still can remember
That spark may burn again

I know that I'll be contented
With yesterdays memories
Knowing you'll think of me
Once in a while
Knowing you'll think of me
Once in a while.
