

Charlie Landsborough, Song Of My Heart

A million roses sent to you one by one
Could never capture the way my feelings run
Could not express or symbolise
The love I find within your eyes

CHORUS:

So don't you ever doubt
The meaning of my silence
The words may not come out
But you are the song of my heart

My love's an ocean that words could never chart
A living ocean that's flowing from my heart
One you are sailing alone
The only love I've ever known

REPEAT CHORUS:

No hearts and flowers my love in stone is formed
And in the fire of your gentleness I've warmed
Orphans' dreams lost and cold
And you turned them all to gold
