

Charlie Landsborough, Still Blue

Spring the jester leaps to my eyes
And with both hands full of surprise he brings
Joy and the whole world sings
But I'm still blue

-----

Summer with his lazy smile
Warms my broken heart for a while it seems
Him and his sunshine dreams
But I'm still blue

CHORUS:
Happiness is only a memory
For you left me blue
Took the rest of the rainbow from me

-----

Autumn with an artist's hand
Leaves his mark all over the land with bold
Strokes of burnished gold
But I'm still blue

REPEAT CHORUS:
Winter comes and tightens her grip
One more year lies waiting to slip away
Like a ship on a fog bound bay
But I'm still blue
But I'm still blue
