

Charlie Landsborough, Throw Me Away

Candle Lights, Snow white winter is clear as crystal
Stands like a dream thats frozen forever in time
Fly fires warms me as the sun retires for another day
Wrap me up in a dream of you and throw me away

I've got even tides fallen
Mellow mantel is fallen
And none the silence the nightingale, sails his sun
Stars blink from a sky of Indian ink
While I kneel an pray
Wrap me up in a dream of you
Throw me away

I'll sit and listen as the clock ticks by Holding you inside my mind
I can't believe that's times have forgotten how to fly
Since you left my worlds behind
Stares ahead
Mother stare hills of memory
Holds smile soften by years of Liven and Love
She knows where the rivers of my longing flows
When she hears me say
Wrap me up in a dream of you
Throw me away

She knows where the rivers of my longing flows
When she hears me say
Wrap me up in a dream of you
Throw me away

Wrap me up in a dream of you
And throw me away

Throw me away (x3)
