

Charlie Landsborough, Too Good To Last

Every moment bares a trace
Every room a memory
Everything is in its place
Except for me
I can't escape you
You're here in side me
And time cant hide me
From the past
My heart is lost
You're just to good to last

Everyday says something new
But the nights wont speak at all
Except in whispers about you
Like old footsteps in the hall

I can't escape you
You're here in side me
And time cant hide me
From the past
My heart is lost
You're just to good to last

Things of great beauty
Touches and goes
Your love once touched me
More than you'll ever know
Like a smoke ring in the air
Like a rain drop in the sun
One moment you where there
Then suddenly you're gone

I can't escape you
You're here in side me
And time cant hide me
From the past
My heart is lost
You're just to good to last

My heart is lost
You're just to good to last
