

Charlie Louvin, Queen Unfaithful

I know there is no honor for ones like her and me
But should there ever be a place for broken hearts to weep
And should there be a kingdom for those who break the rules
They'll crown her queen unfaithful and me the king of fools
Queen unfaithful and king of fools
That's what they'll call us in that place the devil rules
I put all my faith in her and she broke all the rules
They'll crown her queen unfaithful and me the king of fools

[ piano ]

I know there are no prizes for the biggest lie
And there's no wealth or fame for those who's heart is taught to cry
But should there be a kingdom with a castle for two
They'll crown her queen unfaithful and me the king of fools
Queen unfaithful...
