

Charlie Puth, Cheating on You

it started with a kiss
on your momma's couch 2012 was nothing serious and then we caught the feels if got really real too good to be true I guess I thought you was yeah

why did I run
run away /2x
your love was everything /3x
I know it's getting late /3x
but can I still be on my way
on my way

i know i said goodbye
and baby you said it too but when i touch her i feel like i am cheating on you I thought that I'd be better when I found someone new
baby now
cheating on you

thought I could get you back any time of day
shouldn't have been so cocky shouldn't have did you wrong and now I miss you bad really, really bad
guess you don't know what you got until it's gone

on my way

baby now

baby, no
there ain't no lips like your lips and nobody else feels like this there's no moving on I'll admit if you go away
yeah
