

Charlie Winston, Kick The Bucket

If you say this is pop, to be singing to a tune with a rhythm like this, would it be so unpopular for a s
For me it's a mystery. But which ever way you see it you have to admit it and live it and live it !
We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
All the girls kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
And the boys kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
Yep ! We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end ! The end ! The end ! The end !
Blew up my TV. It' was numbing my brain to be thinking the same as million other people all feeling
But there's is nothing to lose, cause we're all on a bike and we're cycling through, getting off on our Cause we all kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
All the girls kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
And the boys kick the bucket in the end ! My friend !
Yep ! We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end ! The end ! The end ! The end !
This is not a sad song !
I don't bring it up to get you down,
It's a celebration of all the red cells going round and round in your body !
I don't mean to preach or to sound lilke a teacher. No ! I only wanna cut the crap and , looking back
That we all kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
All the girls kick the bucket in the end ! The end !
And the boys kick the bucket in the end ! My friend !
Yep ! We all kick the bucket in the end ! The end ! The end ! The end ! The end !
