

charlieonnafriday, I'm Not Crazy

I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
I still call you knowing you won't pick up
Lay there watching your phone ring
All this whiskey and wine yeah
Makes me miss you tonight yeah
I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
I know that you probably not gonna pick up
I got rocky mountains flowing like a river
Yeah girl you know always hold my liquor
But this relationship been fucking up my liver
Now I'm drunk right now and I'm calling your line
Yeah I'm chasing you like tequila and lime
Yeah throwing all these shots back thinking bout you
All this alcohol got me telling the truth
Now it's 3am and I'm calling
And you probably think that I lost it
But I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
I still call you knowing you won't pick up
Lay there watching your phone ring
All this whiskey and wine yeah
Makes me miss you tonight yeah
I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
Got me sippin'
Got me sippin'
Got me sippin'
I'm a couple bottles past some bad decisions
Is you with somebody else is you not?
If I showed up for you shawty would you ride?
I know I
Already called ya
I told you sorry one too many times
You know I
Just really want ya
I told myself that this would be the last time
Now it's 3am and I'm calling
Yeah you probably think that I lost it
But I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
I still call you knowing you won't pick up
Lay there watching your phone ring
All this whiskey and wine yeah
Makes me miss you tonight yeah
I'm not crazy I'm just a little fucked up
I know it's always too late
