

Charlotte Church, Moodswings

Now first of all I,
Wanna let you know that,
I've been known for some,
Minor moodswings, now and then.
It all started back when,
People were doing me wrong and,
Because of my position,
I would hold my tongue for them.
Bad relationships, and people I thought were friends and,
People judging me, before they get to know a thing,
When you decided to step to me, It shows me so clearly,
You just wanna see, see the other side of me

Chorus:

And you dont know what I'm going through and,
You might think it's all about you,
But its everything,
I've been holding back,
It's just bad timing
To come at me like that

I try to keep my cool, thus,
That's what I try to do but,
It's so hard dealing with
People just like you.
I try to walk away from

Situations that run
Into complications
That make me lose control.
If I give in to you then,
It's what you want me to do,
And if I lose my cool,
Then I'm only pleasing you,
You know just how to push me,
My temperature is rising,
Blood pressure is building,
Im about to lose control...

Chorus

Im sorry did I,
Did i cross the line, I
Tried to warn you away,
Way ahead of time,
Im so frustrated that I,
Feel like I could cry,
This could be the time,
But Im not going out like that...

Chorus x 2

To come at me like that x3
