

Charlotte Sometimes, Waves And The Both Of Us

I want the moon and the stars
I want the whole nine yards
I want your hands on my hips
I want you kissing my lips

I want the moon and the stars
I want the whole nine yards
And take off your shirt
You pull up my skirt..

And I can't wait forever, boy...

And the moon
And the stars
And the look in your eyes
Let them find it's way
Into me, oh
And your skin on my skin
And the bones that we're in
Let it slide your way
Into me, oh oh oh

I want the moon and the stars
I want the whole nine yards
I want your hands on my waste
There's no need to wait

I want to dance in the air
I want your hands in my hair
Releasing your breath
As I undress..

And I can't wait forever boy...
