

Charlton Hill, 2's Company

Aching to siphon your senses, I'm on the outside and peeking in.
Listen to the gut feeling; it leaves me reeling and reels me in.

Set me free.

There's a world out there waiting for us all, yeah I believe.
And my mind wonders to destiny;
Its rivers long and mountains tall,
And meant to be.

I'm turning me in; you turn me out.
My original sin; I can't do without.
In honesty, 2's company.
It's plain to see 2's company.

Hard to believe that I heard it was coming,
But I won't be running; I'll stay this time.
I've got a whole new focus; it's called understanding;
I'm hearing the music here in my mind.

And my mind wonders to jealousy;
Where rivers stop and mountains fall into the sea.

I'm turning me in; you turn me out.
My original sin I can't do without.
In honesty, 2's company.
It's plain to see 2's company.

In honesty.
