

Charly McClain, Radio Heart

Married at 16, 2 kids by 21

But he couldn't take it, now she's raisin' them on her own

Between the bills & the laundry, sometimes she's so lonely she cries

But she's found an escape from some of the achin' inside

(Chorus:)

She's got a radio heart

She loves the songs they play, they take him off her mind

She's got a radio heart

It helps fill an empty space he left behind

She gets lost in a steel guitar

Oh it's her way out when the heartache starts

She's found a little salvation in a local station

She's got a radio heart

She'll finish clearin' the table & put the kids off to bed

She tries to watch an old movie, but she thinks of him instead

She lies alone in the dark & stares at the lighted dial

She gets into the music & out of this world for a while

(chorus)

She's got a radio heart
