

Charmaine, Only You

Falling upon my knees
I surrender now
My everything
Lord it amazes me that
You'd hold me in
Your loving arms

I always fail on my own
I have to let go

I want to run
Run away from me
And forget myself
Till I'm lost in You
I pray
Let me fade away
Till there's nothing left
Nothing left, only You

Now I give back to You
What was never mine
Cause I realize that
Lord You are everything I could ever hope for Ever need

I want to run to You my Lord
(Repeat)
