

Charon, Desire You

Don't say a word don't stay awake
Rest for a while, for a life
Sleep quiet my heart, I don't need you now

And it makes me want
Want to fall

Darkness calling, come to reap me from my love
I desire you, for all my heart I've come to this

I want you to come, come fade my sun
Come as you want, tonight
Burn slow my heart, I won't weep you now

And it makes me want
Want to die

Say one more prayer to fall desire
Save one more heartbeat to cry
