

Chase And Status, Streetlife

This is the story of a streetlife

Story of a streetlife (3x)

If you not understand my ghetto, you should have never come around

It seems like every single day, there's something bringing me down

Now there's a war in the streets, the guns blaze all the time

If you're a real bad man, then you'll never back down

(2x)

If you not understand my ghetto, you should have never come around
