

Chasen, All Creation

When I'm standing in the breeze
I can feel you surrounding me
When I'm caught up in the sky
It's like you're looking in my eyes
I feel so, so alive
I feel so, so alive
Seasons change from day to day
Just to show me your beauty
I can't help but stand amazed
Your life is just a glimpse
Of something even greater
To be with You makes me wonder
How much You can love someone
It feels so good
Standing in the sunshine
It feels so good
Dancing with your fireflies
So amazing, captivating
You're in everything I find
You, you, you, you are my love
And still the mountains they grow higher
Yet they bow down to You
And all the oceans
Relinquish at the sound of You
There is no greater
No strength could ever hold
There is no greater, greater than You
[Repeat Chorus]
I won't forget the sunrise
That You painted with my eyes
Colors of Your majesty
I won't forget the sunrise
That You painted with my eyes
[Repeat Chorus]
