

Chaz N' Dave, I Wonder In Whose Arms

I wonder in whose arms you are tonight
I wonder does he think he's doing alright
I don't really care but still I wonder
Just how long he takes to see the light

I wonder if you use the same old lines
The ones you used to whisper all the time
Please believe me I ain't sorry that I lost you
But I wonder in whose arms you are tonight

I wonder how he thinks it's gonna be
I wonder just how long he takes to see
I don't really care but still I wonder
Is he just another fool like me

I wonder if your still the same old girl
And are you tellin' him the storries that you tell
Please believe me I ain't sorry that I lost you
But I wonder in whose arms you are tonight

I wonder in whose arms you are tonight
I wonder does he think he's doing alright
I don't really care but still I wonder
Just how long he takes to see the light

I wonder if you use the same old lines
The ones you used to whisper all the time
Please believe me I ain't sorry that I lost you
But I wonder in whose arms you are tonight

Please believe me I ain't sorry that I lost you
But I wonder in whose arms you are tonight
