

Cheap Sex, Consume And Consume murder violence death and rape every day, there's no escape there's no hope or so it seems when i put the news on the tv screen it's 2003 and we haven't learned seems hate and greed makes this world turn so many people just taking up space shame they can't make this world a better place

[Chorus: (x2)]

consume and consume
we're all doomed
consume and consume
'till we're up in fumes...

a fraction of time is what it would take to think about all our mistakes but it's not your problem it's everyone else spend your life thinking of yourself don't wise up this world is doomed but you just sit there and consume and consume if not for yourself then think of the kids before it's too late and you wish you did.
