

Cheap Trick, Rearview Mirror Romance

I'm movin' I'm feeling like I'm rollin' on my own (What could be better)
Then somewhere drivin' my car the radio turn it on (What could be better)
I check around in traffic from my point of view (What could be better)
Then I saw her in the mirror
Maybe the same thing has happened to you

It was

(Chorus)

Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe that it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview romance tonight
She pulled up close first glance I saw here eyes (What could be better)
I couldn't stop starin' at her she didn't realize (What could be better)
Then looked up in the mirror smile on her faace
There she goes heaven knows
Maybe the same thing has happened to you

It was

Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe that it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview romance tonight

(Solo)

There she goes heaven knows
I wanna meet her all alone
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe that it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview romance tonight
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe that it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview romance tonight
Romance in a rearview mirror
Romance after just one look
Romance in a rearview mirror
I didn't know her but it didn't matter
Romance in a rearview mirror
Just by chance I still can't believe that it's true love reflected sight
It's a rearview romance tonight
