Cheap Trick, Southern Girls (Live)

I've been north, I've been east to the California beach

There's only one place I know where to find you

And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it

You say hump and I'll jump, you say go and I'll know

Waste no time getting so close to you

And you'll never run way when you find out why I wanted to find you

Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes

Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose

You rock me and you're crazy

And everyone says it, yeah

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

I've been up, I've been down, I've been weak, I've been strong

But I never met someone like you

And you'll never run away, when you find why I wanted to find you

You say hump and I'll jump, you say go and I'll know

Waste no time getting so close to you

And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it

Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes

Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose

You rock me and you're crazy

And everyone says it, yeah

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

You think this boy, he loves you, Southern girls

You make it hard oh, so hard

I've been north, I've been east to the California beach

There's only one place I know where to find you

And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it

Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes

Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose

You rock me and you're crazy

And everyone says it, yeah

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose

Southern girls, Southern girls, Southern girls
