Cheap Trick, Southern Girls (Live)

I've been north, I've been east to the California beach
There's only one place I know where to find you
And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it
You say hump and I'll jump, you say go and I'll know
Waste no time getting so close to you
And you'll never run way when you find out why I wanted to find you
Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose
You rock me and you're crazy
And everyone says it, yeah
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
I've been up, I've been down, I've been weak, I've been strong
But I never met someone like you
And you'll never run away, when you find why I wanted to find you
You say hump and I'll jump, you say go and I'll know
Waste no time getting so close to you
And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it
 Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose
You rock me and you're crazy
And everyone says it, yeah
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
You think this boy, he loves you, Southern girls
You make it hard oh, so hard
I've been north, I've been east to the California beach
There's only one place I know where to find you
And all you Southern girls got a way with your words and you show it
Ooh, baby, need some brand new shoes
Get out on the street you've got nothin' to lose
You rock me and you're crazy
And everyone says it, yeah
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
Southern girls, you've got nothin' to lose
Southern girls, Southern girls, Southern girls
