CHEECH And CHONG, Earache My Eye

My momma talk to me Try to tell me how to live But I don't listen to her 'Cause my head is like a sieve My daddy, he disowned me 'Cause I wear my sisters clothes He caught me in the bathroom With a pair of pantyhose My basketball coach He just kick me off the team For wearing high heels sneakers And acting like a queen The world is coming to an end I don't give a dam As long as I have a Limo And my orange hair And it don't bother me If people think I'm funny 'Cause I'm a big rock star And I make lots of money Money, money, money, money, money I'm so bloody rich I own a apartment, buildings and shopping centers I only know three chords Watch me burn you fools
