

Cheez, Git Used To It

One, two, three
Lets go

Well you might think of me
As a nerd and a freak
But I'd like you to know
That I'm better than that
I'm a great man
Who could extend his hand
To help all those in need

Well you might think of him
As a soul thats condemned
With nonsense and death
But now I'd like you to know
He's more than that
Like you to know that he's more than that

We really don't know
Unless we dig deep
We have never discovered
What it's like to be others

Think of life in their shoes
It's different than anyone elses
Just think of life in their shoes
It might seem strange to you
But thats what life is like
In their shoes

So get used to it
