

Cheez, Never Ever

I said I'd never go there
I said I'd never resort to this
But some promises are meant to be broken

I said I'd never do that
I said I'd never leave you
But some promises
Are meant to be broken

Never ever is too long to say
I can never ever say never ever
This word is stronger than most
Its just like a promise
That I can't keep

I said you'd be with me
For all of eternity
I said we'd never grow apart
But in my heart
I knew I didn't mean what I said

(chorus)

I'll never say never ever again
It's too strong of a word
Even for the strong
Promises are hard to ever keep
I guess I'll never be sure again

(chorus)

(verse 1)

(chorus)

Never ever say never ever
