

Chemical Garage, You will never go

1. She looks at you just in your dreams.
You want to have your love like in the film.
She lives next door, but for now its too far.
Everyday she looks like a movie star.
Shell never know, what she means to you,
So everyday you have a really bad mood
You feel rejected. You will never see,
Hers pretty look in reality.

2. You have her number, but youve never called.
You keep her picture like the pain that you hold.
She is a kind that would never talk
With guy like you, so you feel blocked.
You saw her last week with another guy.
You want to talk with her, but you are shy.
Your heart is killing you, like a flame.
And everyday is just the same.
Ref. Like a snow, shes cold,
You will never know.
Passing days became your prison so,
You will never go, never go, never go!
