

Chemical Vocation, Backseat Driver

It seems that I've become nothing within these walls that's broken your neck to How did we get here?
It's not like I don't deserve displaying this shit to you

What the fuck's integrity anyway?

So wave your hands
Pretend that it means something to you
So shake your head
In sympathy

Did I steal your precious time
while waiting for someone who cares
Some part of me will never know
It's not like I don't deserve displaying this shit to you

What the fuck's integrity anyway?

So wave your hands
Pretend that it means something to you
So shake your head
In sympathy

Did I steal your precious time
while waiting for someone who cares
Some part of me will never know
It's not like I don't deserve displaying this shit to you

What the fuck's integrity anyway?

So wave your hands
Pretend that it means something to you
So shake your head
In sympathy
